A climbing day

Description

Whole days and half days on the cliff are great occasions to have fun and climb with an Alpine Guide that will give you advices to improve yourself.

Destinations will be chosen depending on the season, level and provenance of the participants. Numerous cliffs close to Torino will allow us to take advantage of half days and -in whole days- we'll be able to reach Liguria, Valle d'Aosta or Brianconnais.

Participants, depending on their level, will be able to climb as first or second in a roped party.
