Climbing in Orco Valley

Description

La Valle dell'Orco, located in Piedmont, at the brink of the Parco Nazionale del Gran Paradiso, is known in whole Europe and the world for its fabulous lines of trad climbing. Single and multi pitch of rare beauty are sprinkled in the whole valley along faces that remind, even in the names, famous Yosemite Valley.

In Valle Orco you can climb for more than 6 months a year to become an expert trad climber, to train for longer ascents or even just to enjoy an adventurous day in a corner of the Alps magnificent and unique.

You can ask your Alpine Guide to lead you on valley's most famous itineraries or get advised on the best way for you to climb without forgetting the possibility to spend a day in one of the bucolic crags to improve your technique and learn each and every secret of crack climbing.
