Ice Falls

Description

Ice climbing represents one of the most peculiar winter activities. Where in summer, creek and brooks flow, in winter azure ice ribbons are ready to climb on top of your crampons and ice axes.

Climbing on a ice fall is not just "climbing" but also get a chance to soak in an extraordinary environment that exists for few years a year.

Accompanied by your Mountain Guide you will be able to -in the short season that cold gifts us- climb the most beautiful ice falls of the alpine arc, with each and every level and length and get passionate in a crystal world.
